

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

The parties undersigned ("Murata Company Limited" and "Trump Super Investment Co., Ltd.") hereby understand and agree as follows:

- 1) Murata Company Limited (hereinafter called "Murata") will supply its products to Trump Super Investment Co., Ltd. (hereinafter called "Trump Super") to a purchase order placed by Trump Super and accepted by Murata, provided that, Trump Super shall obtain Murata's approval in the form of Nomination of Application as per attached ("Nomination Application") prior to the placement of purchase order. Therefore, Trump Super clearly understand and agree that Murata will not accept any purchase order without such prior approval.
- 2) Murata reserves the right to refuse its acceptance of any new purchase order without any reason regardless of the prior approval of the above.
- 3) Trump Super will not sell Murata products to any such customer as may be nominated in the "Prohibited Customer List" which Murata issues, revises and sends to Trump Super from time to time.
- 4) Murata is always concerned to know who will be the final user of its products or where the products will be finally delivered since it is concerned about the compliance to the laws such as export control laws and other similar laws. Trump Super understands such concern of Murata and therefore, in principle, will not sell the products to distributors, merchants, purchasing offices, traders or the like that are not the final users of the products.
- 5) Murata may, from time to time, review history of the order placement and evaluate performance of the business by Trump Super, and may discontinue further business with Trump Super at its discretion and without any liability.
- 6) In case Murata finds that Trump Super has sold to any customer or any Murata products that is not nominated in the approved Application and/or to any customer in the Prohibited Customer List, Murata may immediately cancel any outstanding purchase order and cease any further business transaction with Trump Super without any liability. Simultaneously, any existing approval of Application will become null and void with an immediate effect.

7) Murata's approval in the form of the Application or its acceptance of the purchase order(s) does not constitute any partnership, distributorship or any relationship of the similar kind between the parties.
